

FENCING CLUB

The Rules of fencing club Bohemians Praha

„It's everyone's duty to follow good manners. We are fencers, not a bunch of monekys.“

Part 1: Trainings

- Newcomers can attend five free trainings "to try" of their choice. Then they have to decide whether they will continue or not. They are due to pay member fee of CZK 2 500 and CZK 1000 for individual lessons per half a year. Individual lesson is a separate training with a trainer, once a week for 20 – 30 minutes (not compulsory).
- Member fees covers group training of chosen weapon two times a week plus free duels (after agreement). Anything extra is paid for.
- Everybody is obliged to come on time. To attend at quarter past beginning is pointless.
- Don't prolong the course of training (except really important occasions don't use your phone, don't unnecessarily leave the gym, keep everything at hand, etc.).
- Keep the gym tidy and go with an example for others.
- The club holds no responsibility for stuff in a gym (including items in lockers).
- Have all your belongings tagged and stored in your locker. Everything left outside its intended place is forfeit to the club.
- Every member that stops visiting trainings (and therefore stop fencing) is due to tidy his locker for others. Items left in the locker will be forfeit to the club in one month.
- If fencer that is privileged for individual lesson with a trainer will not attend without proper apology three-times, he will be replaced with someone who will make a better and more responsible use of this privilege.

Part 2: Tournaments

- Every competitor of fencing club Bohemians Praha is obliged to regularly attend (four times a year at minimum) selected local tournaments. Attendance at foreign tournaments is voluntary.
- Transport to tournaments is individual. There is possibility to organize collective transport after agreement.
- Every competitor will pay his starting fee. Refund of starting fee at local tournament by the club is possible if competitor wins first, second or third place or when attending foreign tournament.
- Every competitor is obliged to keep good manners and follow actual fencing rules. Don't forget that you represent the whole club.
